IMPRESSIONS 2022

CONTENTS

Dear Collectors

Welcome to the 2022 Impressions range, inspired by stamp issues released throughout the year as well as a number of special collectables.

For collectors of very limited-edition products there are 8 offers you can register your interest in via the Limited-Editions Random Draw. One is a boxed medallion set celebrating Peter Brock's outstanding motorsport career at Bathurst, including the original racing program from his inaugural 1972 win.

For coin collectors and enthusiasts we've included a number of special offers. These include Australian and United Kingdom coins celebrating the Platinum Jubilee of Her Majesty The Queen. There is also an exclusive offer for our Collecting Community featuring rose-scented stamps.

As in other years, this catalogue of special products offers something for everyone and their unique area of interest, including special accessories and gift ideas for enthusiasts.

I hope you all enjoy the range, and wish you happy collecting!

Racing

There's nothing more exciting than watching a horse race. It's a sport that has been around for centuries and is still going strong today. In Australia, there are many different types of horse racing, from the traditional flat races to the more modern harness racing. Each type has its own unique history and traditions.

Working

Working horses have played a vital role in the development of Australia. From the early days of settlement, they were used for everything from ploughing the land to pulling heavy loads. Today, they are still used in many different ways, from pulling heavy machinery on farms to pulling carriages in tourist areas.
