Dear Collectors

Welcome to the last edition of the Stamp Bulletin for the year. We bring you festive tiding, with a preview of our three Christmas stamp issues.

Michael Zsolt
Manager, Philatelic Australia Post

The traditional stamp issue marking Christmas presents aspects of the story of Jesus' birth through images from a 15th century illuminated manuscript. The scenes on the two stamps depict the Adoration of the Magi, shortly after the birth of the Christ Child, and the holy family's Flight into Egypt, as they escape the wrath of King Herod. As well as the traditional issue, we release three festive Christmas designs that feature a fir tree, star and gift, represented through depictions of origami, or the Japanese art of paper folding. Our third festive season issue continues our light-hearted Christmas Island Christmas stamp series.

Being the end of the year, we are pleased to release the annual collection of Australian stamps. This illustrated book presents all the gummed stamp and minisheet designs comprising the 2019 Australian stamp program. It also includes an exclusive gummed minisheet of the Drought Relief stamp, released as a self-adhesive booklet last year to raise funds to support farming communities in need.

All applications for the reproduction of Australian stamps should be made in writing to:

This year's exquisite traditional Christmas stamps feature images from a 15th-century illuminated manuscript, one of the treasures of the University of Sydney library. The two scenes from the Christmas story include the Adoration of the Magi and the Flight into Egypt. The first episode occurred shortly after the birth of Christ, when three wise men from the east followed the guiding star to Bethlehem to pay homage to the newborn Jesus. They kneel and bow before the tiny child seated on his mother's lap, and offer precious gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh.

When King Herod heard of the birth of Christ he resolved to seek him out and kill him. The 65-cent stamp shows Joseph, Mary and Jesus escaping Herod's wrath by fleeing to Egypt. Joseph leads the donkey carrying Mary and the swaddled infant Christ, while in the background Herod's pursuing soldiers encounter a peasant tending a wheat crop. A legend relates how a field of wheat miraculously grew as the Holy Family passed. When questioned by the soldiers, the peasant could truthfully say that the trio went by when his crop was planted. Thinking they must be far ahead, the soldiers then abandoned the chase.

The three other stamps refer to more general Christmas cheer: a fir tree, star and gift.

The elegant designs are based on the traditional Japanese art of origami or paper folding. Perhaps the best known modern origami design is the Japanese crane, which became a globally recognised symbol of peace after the allied bombing of Hiroshima in 1945. The meditative art of origami continues to spread a message of peace and goodwill with this year's Christmas stamps.

The Indian Ocean isle has been flying the flag for Christmas since 1643.

Perth-based illustrator Rebecca Mills is behind this year's colourful and lively Christmas Island Christmas stamp issue. It is her first commission for designs for our stamp issue program. She ably continues the light-hearted approach to the Christmas Island Christmas stamps that Australia has pursued virtually since it began producing stamps for the island territory in 1993, with a cheery Santa the centrepiece of the Christmas narrative.

Expressing the festive spirit through her distinctive style, Rebecca has created a digital depiction of the Christmas theme that reveals her graphic design training. She uses bold geometric shapes, strong colours and a flat but textured surface. Her visual techniques draw on a long tradition of graphic-art styles in illustration and advertising, presented with a contemporary flair.

On Christmas Island, as on mainland Australia, the festive meal is a crucial element in Christmas Day celebrations. This year's issue of two stamps and a minisheet features a communal table of abundance, goodwill and joy in the shade of the island's forest. Santa and his trusty reindeer Rudolf join at the table a troupe of impish local characters, including the Green Turtle, Red Crabs, frigatebirds and boobies.

We're celebrating Australia retaining the Ashes with the release of this $1 instant stamp, also available in a sheetlet pack of 10 stamps.

Australia went into the 2019 Ashes series as defender of the urn, having won the series in 2017–18. Australia's 185-run win in the fourth test, at Old Trafford, sealed its fate in retaining the hallowed urn – it couldn't lose the series. England's triumph in the fifth and final test established the 2–2 draw, a result not witnessed since 1972. It was an uncommon thing Australia achieved, visitors retaining the Ashes on foreign soil. Australia last won the Ashes in England in 2001.

The $1 instant stamp and the sheetlet pack containing 10 stamps became available on Tuesday 1 October 2019.

Important notice

On occasion currency has been sent to the Australian Philatelic Bureau in the mail to cover the cost of an order. Whilst this practice is rare, we would like to remind all our customers that this method of payment cannot be accepted.

Australia Post also wishes to advise that, in keeping with guidelines for mail processing as set by the Australian Postal Corporation Act 1989, we are unable to return any currency by mail.

Planned withdrawal dates may be changed without notice to meet emergent postal requirements. Advice of such changes will be published retrospectively in the first available Stamp Bulletin Australia. All prices are GST inclusive and are recommended. Contact the Australian Philatelic Bureau (FREECALL 1800 331 794 within Australia, +61 3 9887 0033 overseas) or visit auspost.com.au/stamps for the current price at the time you place your order. Hours of operation are 8:30am to 5pm AEDT. The price of stamps and related products, souvenir items and numismatics are correct at the time of printing but are subject to change. The price of numismatic products is subject to valuation changes. Contact the Australian Philatelic Bureau, or your participating Post Offices to check the current price at the time of placing your order.
