Hello Collectors

Welcome to the first edition of the Stamp Bulletin for 2021. We're excited to present new stamp issues and philatelic products across a number of themes, including a special self-adhesive sheetlet of MyStamps to support the Let's Melbourne Again initiative. This initiative seeks to encourage people back to the Melbourne CBD, following the recent, extensive period of lockdown due to the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic.

In early January, Lunar New Year celebrations for the Year of the Ox 2021 will be marked with the release of three stamps. Our range of Year of the Ox collectables, perfect for gift-giving or as keepsakes, include gold minisheets, a prestige booklet and a zodiac calendar sheetlet pack, as well as an Australia-China joint stamp pack featuring gummed stamps from both countries.

Our new stamps for special occasions, Memorable Moments, will enhance your invitations and cards, whether for weddings, birthdays or well-wishes. There's also the opportunity to select your own 2021 postmark date on our Happy Birthday postal numismatic cover, for a truly personalised gift. (See details on page 15.)

In February, we commemorate the centenary of the Royal Australian Air Force, which traces its history back to the Australian Flying Corps, which formed in 1912. The designs present early and modern aircraft: the 1921-era SE5A bi-plane and the RAAF's newest air combat aircraft, the F-35A Lightning II.

Two species of land reptile, a skink and a gecko, feature in the stamp issue Norfolk Island Lizards. These interesting creatures inhabit Phillip Island, of the Norfolk Island group, rather than the main island.

I would also like to take this opportunity to thank you, our collectors, for your patience and understanding during Victoria's Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic restrictions. We continue to work hard to meet the needs of our collectors and communities, as we head into a new year.

Lunar New Year, also called the Spring Festival in China, is the most important of the traditional festivals celebrated by Asian cultures. The Year of the Ox begins on 12 February 2021.

The second animal sign in the 12-year cycle, the Ox is highly esteemed because of the important role it plays in agriculture. Those born under the sign of the Ox are said to be sincere and modest, cautious and patient.

The Ox is the second animal in the 12-year cycle of the Chinese zodiac. There are many legends relating to the animals of the zodiac and the reasons for their order, including the story of the Great Race. Long ago, the Jade Emperor of Heaven decided that animals would be designated as signs for the calendar. He held a race that included crossing a great river and decreed that the first 12 who arrived would determine the composition and order of the zodiac.

On 31 March 2021, the Royal Australian Air Force (RAAF) commemorates a centenary of service to Australia. The RAAF traces its history back to the Australian Flying Corps, which was established in September 1912 and commenced flying operations at Point Cook on 1 March 1914.

The Australian Flying Corps (AFC) was part of the Australian Imperial Force (AIF) during World War I until both were disbanded in 1919 following the war. The Australian Air Force was formed in March 1921 and prefix "Royal", approved by King George V three months later, became effective on 13 August 1921. The RAAF was the second Royal air arm to be formed in the British Commonwealth and by end of World War II was the fourth largest air force in the world.

Since World War II, the RAAF has evolved through technology and expertise to become a highly effective fifth-generation air force operating in defence of Australia and our national interests.

Norfolk Island is home to two native species of land reptile, both of which are also evident on Lord Howe Island. Neither species inhabits the Norfolk's main island, probably due to the presence of the Polynesian and Black Rats, but both are found on Phillip Island.

Described on Lord Howe Island in 1874 and first recorded in the Norfolk group in 1978, the Lord Howe Island Skink grows to around eight centimetres and is a rich metallic-bronze to olive colour, with small brown flecks along its body. First described on Lord Howe Island in 1885, the Lord Howe Island Gecko is heavily built and also grows to around eight centimetres. This smooth-scaled gecko is peppered with darker spots, and a series of W-shaped markings fade towards its flanks.

Let's Melbourne Again is a commitment from the people, brands and institutions of Melbourne to inspire hope and encourage people to help bring the city to life again. The City of Melbourne was part of a state-wide lockdown imposed by Victoria's state government to deal with the Covid-19 pandemic.

As part of the initiative, we've developed a self-adhesive MyStamp and postmark to capture this moment in time and to share the message of connection and support with our friends and family across the country.

Impressions of the postmark are available from five Melbourne CBD post offices as well as from the Philatelic Bureau. The self-adhesive sheetlet of five is available by mail order, online and via participating Post Offices while stocks last.

Important notice

On occasion currency has been sent to the Australian Philatelic Bureau in the mail to cover the cost of an order. Whilst this practice is rare, we would like to remind all our customers that this method of payment cannot be accepted.

Australia Post also wishes to advise that, in keeping with guidelines for mail processing as set by the Australian Postal Corporation Act 1989, we are unable to return any currency by mail.

Planned withdrawal dates may be changed without notice to meet emergent postal requirements. Advice of such changes will be published retrospectively in the first available Stamp Bulletin Australia. Contact the Australian Philatelic Bureau (FREECALL 1800 331 794 within Australia, +61 3 9887 0033 overseas) or visit auspost.com.au/stamps for the current price at the time you place your order. Hours of operation are 8:30am to 5pm AEDT. The price of stamps and related products, souvenir items and numismatics are correct at the time of printing but are subject to change. The price of numismatic products is subject to valuation changes. Contact the Australian Philatelic Bureau, or your participating Post Offices to check the current price at the time of placing your order.
