Hello Collectors

Welcome to the final Stamp Bulletin for 2022, presenting the stamp issues and collectables that conclude this year's releases. We hope you find some exciting gift ideas for the festive season ahead.

This year's traditional Christmas stamps portray elements of the Christmas story, while also paying homage to the ancient art form of stained glass. This art form is particularly relevant in 2022, given that it's the United Nation's International Year of Glass. The secular stamps feature a festive word or greeting, presented with a colourful star motif.

The bright and cheerful illustrations on our Christmas Island Christmas stamps are set in the island's airport and show local wildlife greeting Santa as he touches down to spread some festive cheer.

We are pleased to present the 2022 annual collections. These present all of the gummed commemorative stamp designs released throughout the year for the Australian and Australian Territories stamp programs, accompanied by interesting thematic text and vibrant imagery.

I would like to take this opportunity to wish all of you a very happy and safe Christmas and New Year. It has been another challenging year for individuals and communities, and we have greatly valued your support and interest in our range of stamps and collectables. I look forward to everything we can accomplish in 2023.

Finally, I would like to acknowledge the passing of HM Queen Elizabeth II. It has been an honour for Australia Post to produce, since 1953, stamps commemorating the late Queen's many milestones and achievements. To assist collectors with regards to this significant event we have extended the on-sale date of The Queen's Platinum Jubilee 2022 stamps and minisheet.

This year's two religious Christmas stamps pay homage to stained glass – an architectural art form found in historic buildings across the world, including churches and cathedrals. In fact, between the 12th and 14th centuries, European Gothic cathedrals regularly featured stained-glass windows inserted into their tall stone walls. This art form is particularly relevant in 2022, given it is the United Nation's International Year of Glass.

The 65c stamp presents the Madonna, swathed in blue, looking lovingly down on the newborn Christ Child, and framed within a stained glass and arched window, the arch-style window being another feature of Gothic architecture. In the three Abrahamic religions, the Archangel Gabriel is referred to as a messenger of God, and an angel of higher rank. In the Christmas story, it was Gabriel who announced to Mary that she had been chosen to deliver of a son, Jesus Christ and that the birth of Christ was imminent. The angel is seen in the international $2.60 stamp in blue garments, with wings and arms extended in greeting, framed by the arched window design.

The three secular stamp designs feature a Christmas star motif, using colours not unlike those found in sections of stained glass. Each design also presents a word of greeting or good tidings, each synonymous with the festive season, including as part of greeting cards. The sending of Christmas cards, as the custom we know today, began in England in around 1843.

“Joy” represents feelings of great happiness and bliss, and “peace” represents the hope that at this special time of year there will be peace on Earth for all. Based on the Latin word nātālis, the old French word “Noël” means Christmas but is also a carol or song in English-speaking cultures. In France “Merry Christmas” is expressed as Joyeux Noël.

The airport on Christmas Island is a chief point of arrival for those coming to this tropical Indian Ocean environment – and apparently the case is no different for Santa! Illustrated by Imogen Joy, this stamp issue continues our Christmas tradition of producing a light-hearted secular stamp issue that links to the aptly named island territory. Santa’s mode of transport may not be his familiar sleigh, but this festive plane is nevertheless captured by his trusty reindeer.

Santa’s “little helpers” are plentiful on an island renowned for its crabs, and they hand out gifts to some of the island’s unique and diverse wildlife, seen gathering expectantly on the minisheet. You’ll see the Common Noddy, Red-footed Booby, Emerald Dove, Abbott’s Booby, Sacred Kingfisher, Christmas Island Hawk-Owl, Christmas Island White-Eye, Christmas Island Thrush, Lister’s Gecko, Blue-tail Skink, Hawkesbill Turtle and the Scalloped Grass-Yellow Butterfly.

Important notice

On occasion currency has been sent to the Australian Philatelic Bureau in the mail to cover the cost of an order. Whilst this practice is rare, we would like to remind all our customers that this method of payment cannot be accepted.

Australia Post also wishes to advise that, in keeping with guidelines for mail processing as set by the Australian Postal Corporation Act 1989, we are unable to return any currency by mail.

Planned withdrawal dates may be changed without notice to meet emergent postal requirements. Advice of such changes will be published retrospectively in the first available Stamp Bulletin Australia. Contact the Australian Philatelic Bureau (FREECALL 1800 331 794 within Australia, +61 3 9887 0033 overseas) or visit auspost.com.au/stamps for the current price at the time you place your order. Hours of operation are 8:30am to 5pm AEDT. The price of stamps and related products, souvenir items and numismatics are correct at the time of printing but are subject to change. The price of numismatic products is subject to valuation changes. Contact the Australian Philatelic Bureau, or your participating Post Offices to check the current price at the time of placing your order.
